Chai pe Baatien

How about spending your holiday chipping in an odd or healthy conversation with other thinkers, relishing a selection of traditional or continental menus while listening to some great ghazals, or experiencing stand-up comedy outside YouTube and momentarily escape the daily glitches? Chai Pe Baatein is about curling up in rejuvenating activities at some defined cafes with freshly made friends at Yayavar.

Safarnama

Kolkata is a "mixing pot" of different ethnicities, cultures, heritage, arts and more, for which the city is called "the city of joy". But even the people of Kolkata don't know about the splendours of the city conceptualised by the world's best designers and dynasties. Safarnama brings about exploring the unnoticed side of the city, including local retail offerings, food destinations, covetable residences and plush monuments.

Musaafir

We also want to travel with similar-minded people and get under the skin of the destinations nearby Kolkata, sometimes to make our holidays unique and sometimes to allow ourselves to be part of those unplanned moments that we cherish forever for bringing us a chance to interact with local people and maximising our time of exploring independently whilst in accord with other travel buddies to split our bills with.
