Ideologies

Can you think of your life being a 10-year-old child? It's pretty sure, that life was not at all dull back then. That's because, as children, we harnessed creativity; we gelled up with people in a jiffy and did not fear to try new things. Now, ask your 10-year-old-self what it wants now. Does it want to pick a paintbrush and start painting the landscape around, go outside and explore new places, or raid the fridge and gobble whatever is put inside? But, who is stopping your 10-year-old self? Isn't it the grown-up self? It has caged the 10-year-old self to make more time to chase the future and to earn more money. We all are doing that.

But, is it that difficult to meet our 10-year-old-self once more? Don't we deserve another chance to rediscover our lost creativity and curiosity? Yes, we do! And now we will go for it. We will change the narrative of life from "boring" to "productive".

Will we do it alone? Who said! There are many others like us in YAYAVAR to start living once again.

YAYAVAR

Whether you call it a peer support group, a meet-up group, an inner circle, a mastermind group or even a weekend club, it can be everything. So whether you need a little validation, are facing a challenge and seeking the support of friends, want to celebrate your success, want to tick your travel bucket list exploring with new people or want to let your heart carelessly groove in a calm and enjoyable environment- you will find like-minded people who facilitate your wishes, as everyone in YAYAVAR brings something in the form of knowledge, ideas, art, or sheer happiness so that we all partner up on mutually beneficial opportunities and breed amazing friendships. So, whether you want to discuss your dreams, tragedies, goals, or want to explore life a little differently- you are welcome to a community where your heart, mind and soul get limitless freedom from the monotony of mundane duties.

About Us

Chai pe Baatien

How about spending your holiday chipping in an odd or healthy conversation with other thinkers, relishing a selection of traditional or continental menus while listening to some great ghazals, or experiencing stand-up comedy outside YouTube and momentarily escape the daily glitches? Chai Pe Baatein is about curling up in rejuvenating activities at some defined cafes with freshly made friends at Yayavar.

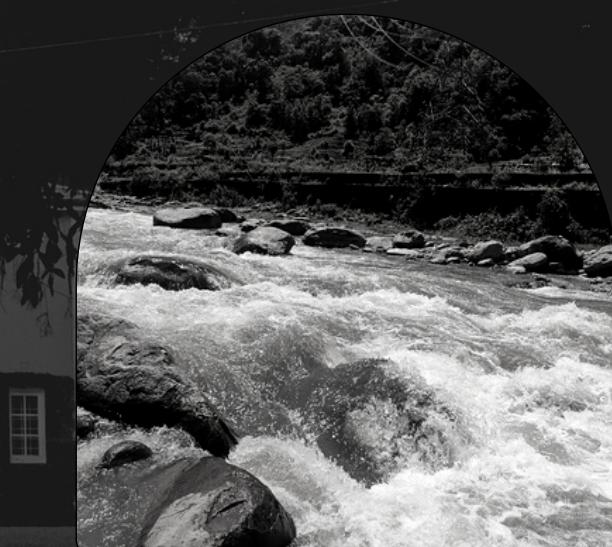

Safarnama

Kolkata is a "mixing pot" of different ethnicities, cultures, heritage, arts and more, for which the city is called "the city of joy". But even the people of Kolkata don't know about the splendours of the city conceptualised by the world's best designers and dynasties. Safarnama brings about exploring the unnoticed side of the city, including local retail offerings, food destinations, covetable residences and plush monuments.

Musaafir

We also want to travel with similar-minded people and get under the skin of the destinations nearby Kolkata, sometimes to make our holidays unique and sometimes to allow ourselves to be part of those unplanned moments that we cherish forever for bringing us a chance to interact with local people and maximising our time of exploring independently whilst in accord with other travel buddies to split our bills with.

List of some activities or adventures:
